FOR IMMEDIATE USE

Date: March 30, 2009

Bookings filling fast for Australia's BIGGEST & best scrapbooking event

With bookings now open, Australia's keenest scrapbook enthusiasts have been busy booking their classes for the annual Scrapbook & Papercraft Convention, Brisbane Exhibition Centre, June 6 – 8, 2009.

People with a passion for paper can choose from a range of two hour classes sponsored by leading papercraft experts from Scrapapple, Stamp Antics, Craft Queen, Scrapbooking Memories magazine, Scrapbook City, Addicted to Craft, Fiskars, Kaisercraft and Print Blocks.

Featuring a fantastic line-up of international and Australian tutors, you'll be taught the latest in traditional and digital scrapbooking by USA's Lynette Carroll, Noralee Peterson and Jodi Holbrook; Australia's Jill Geraghty-Groves, Ngaire Bartlam, Angela O'Neale, Sara Percy, Rachel Richter and Melissa Kennedy...and that's only the start!

Brisbane's Myléne Hillam will also be tutoring at the convention (work pictured below). As a mixed media artist, project designer and teacher whose work is regularly featured in Australian and US paper crafting magazines, Myléne will teach three classes over the duration of the event. With work that is distinguishable by her clean style and love of colour, Myléne's classes always offer interesting and challenging techniques.

Don't miss your chance to learn all the latest in scrapbook and papercraft - log onto www.scrapbookexpo.com.au to view the extensive program of classes scheduled.

But hurry, visit the website today – classes sell out and places are limited!
